This spacious and impeccable, 369m² built detached villa affords fantastic sea and panoramic views across the Port of Mahon. Built in 1989 and to a very high standard, this exceptional villa sits on a large corner plot of 1269m². A good sized driveway, also used for parking, leads to a large garage with storage room. With the incredible views in mind, most of the rooms look out to the sea. The first part of the house boasts 3 double bedrooms with wardrobes and three en-suite bathrooms, fitted kitchen with dining area and a laundry room. The bright and spacious lounge/dining room with fireplace make this area very inviting in those cooler winter months. In the corner of the lounge a door takes you through to the master bedroom en-suite with fitted wardrobes and dressing room, an office/art room and great views. Outside, and built for mediterranean living, there are wonderful sea view terraces, large covered terrace for wining and dining, a large swimming pool and Pool House for keeping those drinks nice and cold. Well kept gardens with trees and plants surround some of the house and also has a wood store. While you relax and watch the yachts go by, see if you can find the towns of Sol...
