Have you ever wanted to own a 19th century Palace? This beautiful property is located in one of the most beautiful streets of the historic center of Mahón. With a built size of 1,120m², the palace, built by Andreu Escudero and Taltavull, a merchant from Mahón specializing in colonial products, was acquired by the Lluïl Mancas family in 1951 and subsequently restored and refurbished until its current appearance and distribution. This reform resulted in 4 palatial homes that emphasize its frescoes painted on the ceiling representing historical scenes and its mahogany floors, brought from the Indies by the first owner. On the ground floor level there is a new Business Centre of more than 400m², which includes a light and bright entrance and includes a reception area, waiting room, shop/offices, large meeting room and an equipped kitchen. The property has the "horizontal division" allowing the owner to sell the whole building or each apartment and shop units separately. This quiet street is just around the corner from the main part of town with its outdoor cafes, restaurants and shops. The Famous Port of Mahon is a 5 minute walk with all its super-yachts and the airport is a ...
